Additional Notes to Spectators

- Crosswalks: Crosswalks will be set up at convenient locations along the race course. Please follow the instructions of the crossing guard when using a race-related crosswalk. Always use caution when crossing any portion of the Ford Ironman St. George race course.
- Spectator Parking: Personal vehicles will not be allowed into Sand Hollow State Park on race day. Spectators who want to view the swim start should park at the Washington County Fairgrounds, located on the south side of State Road 9, at 5300 West. Shuttle busses will take spectators from the Washington County Fairgrounds to the swim start in Sand Hollow Reservoir. Spectators who want to view the bike-to-run transition and finish line in Town Square should park at the Dixie Sun Bowl parking lot, located on 100 South between 300 East and 400 East. Spectators can also utilize the surface street parking throughout downtown St. George. Please note that all red zone and handicapped parking areas will be enforced.
- Shuttle Bus Service: All spectators will have the option of using the complimentary shuttle bus service from the parking lots at the Washington County Fairgrounds to the swim start area in Sand Hollow Reservoir. Shuttle bus service will be available from 5:30 - 6:40 a.m. If you choose to go to the swim start, be advised that the shuttle bus service will return spectators to the Washington County Fairground parking lots from 9:30 - 10:30 a.m.
- Ivins Fitness Festival: The Ivins Fitness Festival will be held in UNITY Park, located at 200 West and 400 South, on Saturday, May 1, from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. The Ivins Fitness Festival will offer the best views of the bike course, as athletes pass by the area at miles 30 and 74. The Ivins Fitness Festival will feature representatives from area health and fitness facilities, a variety of local eateries, unique shops and fun attractions. All spectators will have the option of using the complimentary shuttle bus service, which leaves from 200 West and Tabernacle Street every 15 minutes from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.
